

The North Georgia Holiday Mini Guide

Your quick guide to lights, markets, and small-town Christmas magic across North Georgia.

T R A V E L G U I D E

Perfect For

Families, couples, or anyone craving cozy adventure

When to Visit

Mid-November
through early January

Travel Tips

Bring layers, an open schedule, and a little wonder

There's something special about Christmas in North Georgia, the kind of cozy magic that feels tucked between mountain air, small-town lights, and hot cocoa with people you love.

This mini guide highlights a few of my favorite festive escapes, the kind that bring joy, nostalgia, and just the right amount of sparkle to your season.

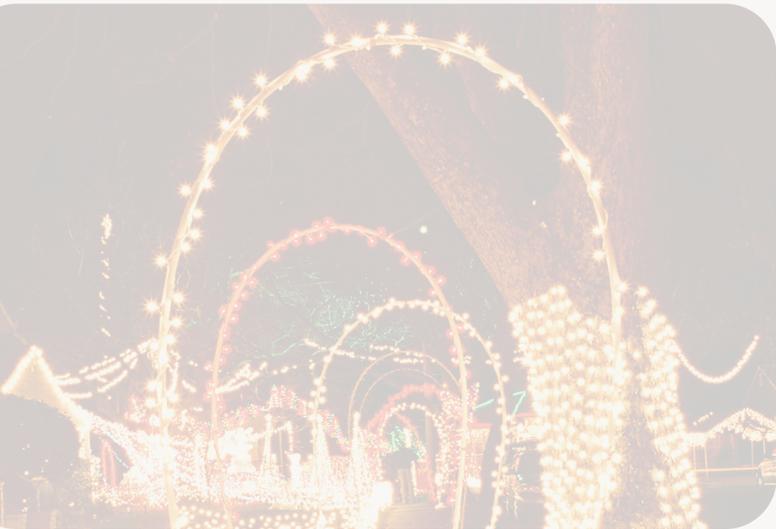

❑ 1. Lake Lanier Lights (Flowery Branch)

Stroll through glowing tunnels, ride the Ferris wheel, and warm up by lakeside firepits.

Don't Miss: The reflections on the water at night, pure magic.

Local Stop: Peyton's Pie Pizza for a great dinner spot. In Downtown FB.

Google Maps: Lanier Nights of Lights

❑ 3. Helen's Christkindlmarkt

A Bavarian-style village transformed into a festive European market with mulled wine, music, and lights.

Don't Miss: Weekends in early December for the full experience.

Local Stop: Hofer's Bakery & Café for German pastries.

Google Maps: Helen, Ga

❑ 2. Dahlonega Old-Fashioned Christmas

Small-town charm at its finest. Lights, carols, and that nostalgic golden glow on the square.

Don't Miss: Carriage rides at twilight.

Local Stop: The Humble Candle for handmade gifts.

Google Maps: Downtown Dahlonega

❑ 4. Atlanta Christkindl Market (Lawrenceville)

A cozy, European-style market with handmade gifts, live music, and the best warm pretzels you'll find this side of Germany.

Don't Miss: Hot mulled wine. .

Local Stop: Boulder Creek Coffeehouse or Slow Pour Brewing Co. for a festive treat.

Google Maps: Lawn at Lawrenceville

Plan Your Cozy Season

Sometimes the best parts of the holidays aren't the biggest trips... they're the quiet escapes close to home. Use this checklist as inspiration to slow down and soak in the magic.

Holiday Checklist:

- Visit one festive town you've never explored
- Try a new seasonal coffee drink
- Take a winter evening walk under lights
- Support a local shop or artisan
- Start a small, cozy family tradition

Bonus Paper Waves Tip:

Pair this guide with your favorite playlist, a warm drink, and no rush at all. The best kind of travel starts slow.

Created by Britt Herold | Paper Waves
Travel & Lifestyle, by Design

Website: paperwaves.co
Pinterest: @paperwaves.co
Instagram: @paperwaves.co

